

DESIGNATION OF PRINCIPAL/SUBSIDIARY CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

A candidate may designate one political committee as his principal campaign committee. A candidate may also one or more political committees as his subsidiary committees. Further, a principal campaign committee may subsidiary committees. Any designated committee must file a Statement of Organization and submit a $100 fee. Use of principal or subsidiary committees is entirely optional. If committees are used, this report must be filed 10 days after the designation is made. If a committee is organized to support a single candidate and that candidate designates that committee as his principal or subsidiary committee, he must file a statement, in writing, disavowing such a designation. Once such a disavowal is filed, no funds may be exchanged between the candidate and the committee.
